HERRMANN'S DOG.

mann, and Major is the large, handsome

You're a reporter!"

f told you. Major will return to day," Prof. Herrmann and the reporter then turned their attention to the boy. "Did he know where the dog was?"

Yes, but he couldn't get him without the

The wizzard thought differently. So did liberators, put this perpetual-motion muscle to work on his tail, and after running against and knocking over an empty barrel, a

His master and his mistress. Prof. Herrmann's charming wife, gave him a cordial welcome, bu! Mme. Diss Debar outdid them all.

For as Major went cavorting up the stairs
the Princess, with a cry of delight, threw both her arms around his neck, snuggled her face close against his and gladsomely gur-

upraised, cried out:
"No! No! I can't! Time is fleeting and

"No! No! I can't! Time is fleeting and I must materialize elsewhere. But I brought back Major, didn't I, Professor?" and as the latter gave a laughing assent, the Princess, laughing too, exclaimed, "All right theu, $500 please!" and with the words she ran nimbly down the steps, entered the well-appointed carriage, and was wheeled away to the scene of her next materialization act.

AFTER MR. CANNON'S COACHMAN.

Lawyer Crosby Accuses Him of Careless Driving and Abusive Language.

of town, and his employer professed ig-

After the service they were crossing Broad

After the service they were crossing Broad-way at Twelfth street when Mr. Cannon's Jehu nearly ran into them, and Mr. Crosby's expostulations were met with abusive lan-guage from the coachman. Mr. Crosby swore out a warrant against the coachman in Jefferson Market Court yesterday on the charge of careless driving and abusive lan-

Mr. Cannon told the officers that he had push the charge.

From the point of view of many swell coachmen, the passers-by are only in the way of the carriage folk, and scant time is given to them to get out of it.

ANOTHER GOOD RESOLUTION.

TUESDAY EVENING, MARCH 19.

SUBSCRIPTION TO THE EVENING EDITION

VOL 29.....NO. 10,073

Entered at the Post-Office at New York as second-class

IT IS BASED ON JUSTICE.

No bill ever came up for consideration in the Legislature with stronger backing than the act to amend the Children's Commitment law which will be called up in the Assembly

The principle of this bill is founded on appeal to the prejudices of no creed, nationality, politics or social condition. Black and white, bond and free, rich and poor, Democrat and Republican are alike interested to see that their children have under the laws of the State the right of a hearing, the right of appeal, which the fundamental law of the land guarantees to all its citizens.

The Children's Bill is based on justice, on the principle of fair play, on the idea that right should be done for right's sake.

Is it not better that the autocratic privileges of ninety and nine bureaucratic societies should be reasonably abridged, than that the rights of a single helpless infant should be strangled in charity's red-tape?

Oh! old-fashioned justice is a big argument

THE CASE OF JANITOR PFOST.

Does nobody intend to do anything about that poor German janutor, Prost, who was done to death while he was "down" by Policeman Lavin's club?

Because he was poor, because he has no influential friends, shall his fate be passed over

We call this case again to the attention of the constituted authorities. It needs investigation.

WE REVOLVE FOR ALL.

The town was much amused yesterday by THE EVENING V. DRLD'S unique enterprise in printing its late Extra on green paper. It was a novel hit that not only our friends of Irish extraction but everybody else highly appre-

As stated editorially, the edition was passing compliment to Saint Parkick."

But THE EVENING WORLD with similar en terprise would be glad to honor the patron saint of any other nationality.

THE EVENING WORLD admires and believes in patron saints who by their lives and achievements personify the high aspirations of the justice-seeking and liberty-loving people of any land under the sun.

THE EVENING WORLD stands for the welfare and advancement of humanity in its broad-

We revolve for all.

DIED FAR AWAY FROM HOME

MRS. LOUIS WORMSER SUDDENLY EXPIRES IN SAN FRANCISCO.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENES WORLD.) SAN FRANCISCO, March 19. - Mrs. Louis Wormser, sister-in-law of the well-known New York banker, died suddenly at the Palace Hotel last evening, She was having her hair dressed preparatory to attending a wedding when she complained of feeling ill.

There was no time to call a physician before life was extinct. Bright's disease was deftly placed in the last act. This last act is the cause of death. Mr. and Mrs. Wormser marvellously potent. May I be forgiven if I had been on the coast several months and had returned from a trip to South but three The silver wedding of the couple was to have been celebrated in a short time.

Mrs. Wormser was well known in this city. being a sister of Maurice Schmitt, She had torded, and splendid were the results.

Mr. Isidor Wormser, the head of the bank-ing firm of I. and S. Wormser in the Mills bullding, received the sad intelligence of his brother's wife late last evening. brother's wife late last evening.

He was at his office early this morning and to an Evening World reporter said:

"My brother has been in California all the Winter with his wife, whose health has been poor some time.

'They spent most of their time at Los Angeles, and Mrs. Wormser's health was apparently so much improved that they went to San Francisco, expecting to remain there about a month before returning to New York.

"Yesterday afternoon, my brother wires me, he went out to walk with his wife when she was suddenly taken violently ill, and had to be conveyed to the hotel where they were staying.

to be conveyed to the hotel where they were staying.

"A physician was summoned, but she was beyond help and died shortly afterwards at the hotel."

Mr. Wormser, who was greatly affected during the recital, added that arrangements would be made as soon as possible to bring the remains to this city for burial.

Louis Wormser is the oldest of the three brothers, and was for a long time at the head of the present banking firm. About ten years ago he re retired from business and since that time has lived a life of leisure.

His residence is 2 East Sixty-fifth street.

Mrs. Wormser was forty-two years of age and has been an invalid for many years.

Miss Cayvan, during the trial scene, did some theorems in the reduction of the trial scene, did some theorems, during the reduring the reduring theorems, during the reduring theorems, during the trial scene, did some theorems, during the reduring theorems, during theorems, during theorems, during

A FIRE ON THE SOUND.

It Was Not a Steamer, as Supposed, but

Mr. Henshaw's Stables. In answer to numerous inquiries regarding the reported burning of a Sound steamer opposits Port Jefferson at an early hour last evening, a despatch was received from in evidence. This youth ought to have a tuck Bridgeport this morning saying that no steamer had been destroyed, but Henshaw's stables, a large structure situated on the beach at South Port, was burned at that time.

The fismes lit up the heavens for miles around and might have been easily mistaken for a burning steamboat. Twenty-five horses were burned in the stable.

MUNDANE MATTERS.

Too much credit cannot be given Mrs. Anss tasia Parsell for living in New York a hundred years without ever being run over by a stree car, robbed by a dog-catcher, poisoned by oil fumes or clubbed by a "cop."

Hope springs perennial, also perweekly and perdial, in the breast of Mr. Stone, of Chicago.

After having finished a 3,900 mile jaunt after a Challenges Issued Plentifully for Love murderer, it might be supposed that the son-inlaw of the late Amos J. Snell would be willing to sit down and rest. Not so. He has "anothe clue, more valuable than any he has yet investigated." Mr. Stone ought to be a good man to send after the North Pole.

N. B.-He is now after Tascott,

Mrs. Louise Howell, the vocalist, has compose a song to Baby McKee. Nobody has named a baby or a shad-boat after Baby McKee yet.

The perils of the streets of New York are assuredly not to be sucezed at. Mr. Edward F. Crosby was nearly run over by a coachman yesterday and Miss Hannah Kelleher is in search of two young women who saw her thrown from a bobtail car. There was talk in a former day of 'little tin gods on wheels." Just now the old Harry himself seems to be on wheels.

Sorosisters are in town,

All hail, Sorosis! They're promenading up and down Without a single beau, sis;

They are free, white and twenty-one, Go in for harmony-and for fun, They dine on milk, a tart and bun, And chat of trichinosis!

The guest of the Fellowcraft Club last night and of the Authors' Club to-night, Mr. James Russell Lowell, should not, during his visit to New York, neglect the woman's clubs, of which there are now "in our midst" more than enough to arm a broom-brigade. Among the most highly prized conundrums of the elder day was one that declared "a woman's club" to

"THE MARQUISE" AT THE LYCEUM.

From "Sweet Lavender" to "The Marquise was a leap with a vengeance! But it was a very nice one; for, though the delicate organisms of many of our play-goers refuse anything stronger than milk and water, there are those who look upon that mixture in the unpoetic light of And "Sweet Lavender," though Hlops. pretty and pathetic, became sloppy on intimate acquaintance. "The Marquise" has certainly suffered a deep wrong at the hands of the milk-and-water fiend, who took hold of Sardou's play, "Ferreol," adapted it and said "I can produce it, but it must be purified." Now purification has weakened "The Marquise," for the reason that it has rendered the actions of the heroine, Helene Fontange, incomprehensible. In fact, Helene de Fontange, to behave as she did, could cossible to handle a French play and say: "You shall have what is good, and I'll cut out what is bad." The good and the bad are hopelessly blended. Take the effervescence from champagne and see if you will like what remains.

The story of "The Marquise" deals with the anguish of a young fellow who has seen a murder committed and the wrong man convicted, while he does not dare to set matters right, because, by doing so, he will compromise the Marquise, who is the wife of the Presiding Judge. Rodolphe de Chamery saw the murder from the terrace of the Marquise's room, and feels that he will compromise her if he tells this. In the original French the young man was violently in love with the Marquise and had been illicitly visiting her. His subsequent anguish and her despair at after events are entirely intelligible. The man and woman have sinned and retribution has followed them. In the Lyceum version, however, this heroic young man simply handed her some old letters that have passed between them as boy and girl. He does not care for her now particularly. She is in love with her husband.

she did, and you have either got to believe in her innocence or leave the Lyceum Theatre. That house must be spotless. Dan Frohman says it. Three words with a loving, indulgent husband would have set the Marquise right. You will, therefore, see that a play the strength three words is somewhat eccentric. It is impossible to sympathize with the Marquise. She was either a fool or a lunatic. The English adaptation of Sardou's play is utterly weak, but the work of the French author is a masterpiece. "Ferreol" is an admirable piece of construction, with the strong scene couldn't help wishing last night that the Marquise had really sinned, so that this magnificent cene might be absolutely intelligible!

Enough of the play itself. "The Marquise," I hear, was only produced in order that the members of the Lyceum company might have an opportunity to "act." This they were afa wide circle of friends both here and in New this day forth-I register it as a vow-I shall say nothing more about Kelcey's trousers, or his high hat, or his gloves, or his walking stick, or anything that is his. Kelcey can act. As the Marquis d'Autal, President of the Court, Mr. Kelgey contributed a performance that was really a gem. The methods of the artist were his. The expression upon his face during the trial when as Judge he heard the name of the woman in the case, and as husband realized that she was his wife, was perfectly convincing. Keloey's performance was the feature of "The Marquise," and no company could have shone more brightly in the play than did the Lyceum people.

Miss Cayvan was most acceptable when quiet. She cannot successfully do hysterics. She is too rampageously disposed. Effic Ellsler is one of the best of the hysterical ladies of to-day.

juror, highly successful. Miss Grace Hender-son, in a would-be comedy part, was very jerky. Her walk is a curiosity almost worth seeing. Miss Dora Leslie was extremely unpleasant. Her lamentations set my teeth on edge, and she lamented fearfully often. Mr. Whittlesey, as a young man of the period, was unconsciously amusing. I have never before seen legs so much taken in that impetuous, untamed stage stride. ALAN DALE.

No Trouble No Treuble
To take RIEER'S COMPOUND SARALPANIELL, which is guaranteed better than any advertised, or they agree to return the money; and it only taken twelse a day (before breakfast and on returney), it may be taken with the greatest regularity withouth.

Insist on having RIEER'S SARALPERILLA and you are positively euro of ours. Do not a surface you otherwise. Sold by almost surface or gesting what you ask for at the day-goods as be sure of gesting what you ask for at the day-goods have and general stores, or direct from fWM. S. HIEER & SON, 105 6th ave., near 22d st., see York.

THE PIG CHASERS.

Many Aspirants for the Title of "Champion Pig Driver," or Money.

Two Claim a Record of Less Than Three Seconds.

This morning's mail brings forth numer ous claimants for the title of "Champion Pig Driver.

As many of the records given fall far beneath the best time submitted, only a few of the letters are presented, the writers of which feel entitled to the dignity of cham-

In two of the letters received the writers make the remarkable claim that they have make the remarkable claim that they have penned the pigs in two and two and one-quarter seconds.

Mr. John A. Carroll, who disputed the records sent to this office and challenges any one to beat his time of fourteen seconds, has met with a prompt response, and a match may be looked for.

Other letters contain various records, and with few recentions the writers are anyious with few exceptions the writers are anxious to meet an antagonist for money or honor.

An Astonishing Record.

To the Editor of The Evening World: I think that I can claim the record for pigchasing, my record being 254 seconds actual time. The best record being 3% seconds, I break it easily by 114 seconds. Where is Herrmann, Chauncey M. Depew and our friend Kellar now? TRED B. GRORGE.

349 Bergen street, Brooklyn.

This Is Still Better. To the Editor of The Evening World: I have tried to solve the puzzle, which is now all the go. I practised it until I can do it in two seconds with four pigs.

EDWARD HARN, 455 Third avenue.

Herrmann and Kellar Challenged. the Editor of The Evening World :

I think I can do the puzzle about as quick as ny one, and I hereby challenge the party who claims to have made a record of eight seconds in solving the Pigs in Clover puzzle to a pig-driving match, in the presence of THE EVENING WORLD editor, for any amount of money. I do not bar Kellar or Herrmann. R. D. Lyons, Hastings-on-Hudson.

Another Challenge.

to the Editor of The Evening World: I will challenge any razzle-dazzle puzzle solver that I can pen four pigs in nine seconds and six pigs in forty-six seconds. You will con-fer a great favor by giving this space in your brilliant paper. W. T. P.

I have a man by the name of William Hoehn. who is open for a challenge to the amount of $100 up to $300, for putting the pigs in the pen. He has done it in less than five seconds. JACOB MOSSINGER. 50 Washington street. Hoboken.

Good for Freddie.

To the Editor of The Evening World: I drove the pigs in the pen in just seven se onds. My father timed me.
FREDDIE LOVELL, thirteen years old,
Mount Vernor

Carroll's Challenge Accepted. To the Editor of The Evening World:

Mr. John A. Carroll, who signs himself the champion puzzle solver of the Sixth Ward, wagers $50 that it can't be done in less than fourteen seconds. Now I will have to take his little $50. I can do it in nine seconds. Man and money at Standard Museum.

A DIAMOND.

A DIAMOND. [If Mr. Carroll is desirous of keeping to his challenge of yesterday, THE EVENING WORLD will provide the puzzles, referees and timekeepers, and appoint a meeting for Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the office of THE EVEN-ING WORLD as mutual ground. Now, gentlemen, what do you say ?-ED. 1

The Closing Quotations.

ч	A CONTRACTOR OF THE PARTY OF TH	Spien.	High	Lose.	Close.
П	American Cotton Oil	5496	55%	5416	55%
1	American Cable	83	83	83	83
Ш	American Cotton Oil American Cable Atch., Top. & Sante Fe Brunswick Land	4694	40%	4516	20%
u	Brunswick Land,	21	2115	211	2339
		2332	3312	23.72	3372
1	Cameron Coal	47	47	47	47
٠	Canton Land Cleve., Col., Cin. & Ind Chesapeake & Ohio Chesapeake & Ohio 1st pfd.	68%	61034	6894	61996
·	Chesaucako & Ohio	10	1634	16	1634
9.1	Chesapeake & Ohio 1st pfd.	59	bust	58%	50%
Ш	Chicago Gas Trust	4234	44.	4434	43%
	Core., Burl. & Quincy	1000	9634	V389	00%
	Chie., St. L. & Pitta	1000	17%	10302	1/1432
	Chesapeake & Ohio I at off. Chicago Lias Trust. Cone., Burl. & Quincy. Chic., St. I. & Pitts. Chicago & Northwest. Chic. & Northwest. Chic. & Northwest. Chic. & Northwest. Chic. & Hall & St. Paul. Chic., Mil. & St. Paul. Chic., Book Is & Pacific. Chic. & Eastern III. Cio., Ind., St. I. & Chic. Col. & Hocking Valley. Colorado Così & Iron Consolidated Gas.	13602	1300	1938	1365
	Chic Mil & St. Paul	0117	625	6114	6214
9	Chie., Mil, & St. Paul ptd.	0834	1010	9817	1911
	Chie. , Rock Is. & Pacific	9134	19136	1074	9134
	Chie, & Eastern Ill	.41	41	41.	41
Į,	Cin., Ind., St. L. & Chie.	10894	108%	10796	108
	Col. & Hocking Valley	Star	31	2004	107 11 824
	Consolidated Gas	A162	H2%	350	ROW
•	Del Lack & Western	13712		1375	LING
	Delaware & Hudson	130%	13012	130%	130%
	Denver, Tex. 4 Ft. W	1997	20		20
	Denver & Rio Grande	1000	1536	15%	1.554
9	Colorado Coal & Iron Onnolidated Gas Del., Lack. & Western Delaware & Hudson Denver, Tex. & Ft. W Denver & Rio Grande E. Tenn. Va. & Georgia E. Tenn. Va. & Ge. 2d prd Green Bay & Winona Illinois Central Lake Shere.	65	05	65	9%
5	E. Tenn., Va. & Ga. 1st pro	20%	0.012	2014	9012
	Green Ray & Winone	6	1084	6	1114
511	Illinois Central	10836	10846	7/1917	108%
1	Lake Shore	183	1 (N Ph	1634	100%
	Lake Erie & Western	1697	1047	10%	16%
	Lake Shore. Lake Eric & Western Lake Eric & Western pfd. Louisville & Nashville	2:179	0.524		0446
	Louisville & Nashville	500	5034	5834	50%
	Louis, New Alb. & Chi Manbattau Consol Mil, L. S. & West. pfd Missouri Pacific Mobils & Objo	0.5	08	95	9.4
,	Mil M. S. & West pfd.	106	106	106	106
	Missouri Pacific	111116	CSN	00%	HIN:
	Missouri Pacific	10	10	10	10
	Missouri, Kansas & Tex	12%	1234	4.714	1236
	Missouri, Kansas & Tex Morris & Essex National Lead Trust	150	150	150	150 150 150 150 150 150 150 150 150 150
	National Lead Trust. Nash, Chatt & St. L. New Jersey Central. New York Central. Y. A. New England. N. Y. Chic & St. Louis. N. Y. Lake Erice & West. N. Y. L. & W. pfd. N. Y. & Worthern pfd. N. Y. Sunq. & Western. N. Y. Sunq. & Western. N. Y. Sung. A West. pfd. N. Y. Sung. A West. pfd.	1	0.14	711	00014
	New Jersey Central	034	94	117184	114
ľ	New York Central	10694	10036	10002	10034
ľ	N. Y. & New England	4236	1714	1177	171
•	N. Y., Chie & St. Louis	17.	1.716	17.	1734
	N. X., Lake brie & West	669	6664	6664	0094
5	N V A Northern and	889	20.4	20	20
b	N V Suso A Western	~N	B	8	- 8
	N. Y., Susq. & West, pfd	31	31	30%	304
1	Norfolk & Western pfd	4814	41796	4857	41196
	Northern Pacific	4814 25 5814	4174	357	25.
	Northern Pacific pfd	58%	23776	D8496	23226
	Outario & Western	137	1554	1992	7.424
	N Y. & Northern pld. N. Y. Susq. & Western N. Y. Susq. & Western N. Y. Susq. & Western Northick & Western pld. Northern Pacific. Northern Pacific. Northern Pacific. Northern Pacific. Northern Pacific. Ontario & Western Or. Railway & Naviga. Or Transcontinental Oregon Short Line.	95	96	0457	96
9	Or Transcentinental	3)36	3234	3152	3134
	Oregon Short Line	51	52	51.	62
	Pacific Mail	3434	35274	3416	35%
9	Pipe Line certificates	2079	11034	SHA	90%
	Philadelphia Gas	7812	2278	7034	2279
1	Peoris, Decatur & Evans.	23	234	23	0.314
	Pipe Litte certificates. Philadelphia & Reading. Philadelphia Gas. Peoris, Decatur & Evans. Pullman Palace Car Co. Pullman P. Car Co. rights. Rich. & W. P. Ter.	17114	1733	171	1731
1	Pullman P. Car Co. rights.	1817	1816	18%	1814
x	Rich. & W. P. Ter.	180 78	2454	2316	24%
t	St. Part & Orner, pfd	31	78	78	30%
	St. Paul & Omaha. St. Paul & Omaha pfd. St. Paul & Duluth. St. Paul & Minn & Manitoba	9000	8044	8002	2002
1	St. Paul & Duluth	35	3587	35	3/32
	St. Paul, Minn & Manitoba	9634	0032	9014	19034
	St. Louis & San Fran. pfd.	2134	2214	2134	2014
	St. Louis & San Fran. pfd.	58	56%	53	5534
1	Texas Pacific	3776	19	3776	1776
	Teans Paoine Tennessee Coal & Iron Tol., Ann Arbor & N. M. Union Pacific Wahash, St. L. & Pacific Wah. St. L. & Pac. prid. Western Union Telegraph. Wheeling & Lake Erie	SK	3772	05	81/39
	Union Pacific	894	633	8234	7362
	Wabash, St. L. & Pacific.	1292	1394	1292	1312
t	Wab., St. L. & Pac. pfd	25	2532	25	25
	Western Union Telegraph.	8444 6344	R596	5555	85%
-	W neeling & Lake Erie	Octobe.	0.5	0376	0336

New York Markets.

WHEAT.—May opened Mc. off at 9214c., and fell off to 924c. June opened at 93Mc.; July, 924c.; Aug., 90c.; Dec., 93c. The market was steady during the morning and the quotation for May recovered to the opening figure. Chicago weak. Cables dull.

March April May
Are the best months in which to purify your blood, for at no other season does the system so much need the aid of a reliable medicine like Hood's Barsaparilla, as now.
During the long, sold winter, the blood becomes thin and impure, the body becomes weak and tired, the appetite may be lost. Hood's Barsaparilla is peculiarly adapted to purify and enrich the blood, to create a good appetite and to overcome that tired feeling.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only ty C. I. HOOD & OO., Apothecaries, Levell, Mass. . 100 DOSES ONE BOLLAR

ANN O'DELIA AND MAJOR. CAGED IN THE TOMBS.

SHE PREDICTS THE RETURN OF PROF. Philipsen May Have to Stand Trial for Periury. Of Course the Whereabouts of the Dog Was Known, but That's Nothing-She Was Also Seized with a Desire to Manifest He Pleads "Not Guilty," with a String Spiritually, but Didn't on Mature Consideration-A Reporter Finds the Dog. Attachment, STRAYED—Friday evening, from 334 West 45th st. Slarge St. Bernard dog, Major, Please return t above address and receive liberal reward. Prof. A

Another Lively Fight Over Clerk Mc-This advertisement appeared in this morn-Adam Taking the Witness Stand. ing's World. Prof. A. Herrmann is the Herr-five-year-old St. Bernard which two years Charles Philipsen, ex-Manager of the North River Fish and Game Company, is in the five-year-old St. Bernard which two veats ago became a petted and well-loved member of the Professor's family.

This morning, to an Evening World young man, Prof. Herrmann said that Major was still missing, but that a boy had called at the house and claimed that, though the dog was not in his possession, he could produce him if the reward were forthcoming. Herrmann was not at home at the time and the boy was told to call again this morning.

As the boy was momentarily expected, the reporter, at Mr. Herrmann's request, decided to await his coming. Recorder Smyth remanded him there this afternoon on the indictment for perjury found against him for his testimony before the Commissioners of Accounts while he deliberates as to the amount of bail he will fix

Philipsen was brought on from Philadelo await his coming. Conversation was begun on the subject of phia by Detective Perazzo last evening and spent the night in a cell at Police Headquar Conversation was begun on the subject of the Profes or's engagement of Mme. Diss De-bar, but had progressed no further than a beginning, when the door-bell rang and shortly after a servant entered bearing the card of Princess Ann O'Delia.

Another moment and Her Highness entered the room. Superbly dressed, grandly erect in carriage and more impressive When he arrived at the District-Attorney's office at noon he presented a very seedy ap pearance and looked as though he had been on a prolonged spree. grandly erect in carriage and more impressive He was arraigned to plead before Recorder n manner than ever, the ''occult medium Smyth, and his counsel, Charles W. Brooke, bowed with stately grace to the two present, seated herself in an easy chair and exentered a plea of not guilty, with leave to claimed:

"You're a reporter!"

The scribe acknowledged the corn, and the exponent of psychic occultism continued in her usual breezy strain:

"Well, you see I'm still alive and on earth! It's a good thing to possess a little extra 'adipose tissue' to fall back on these cold days, isn't it?

"Yes, through the kindness of the Professor I am about to conquer my enemies and set myself right before the public. I have signed the contract. If I am a fraud I shall be exposed. If I prove that I am honest—well, that will be sufficient triumph."

And here the jingle of the bell again interrupted the conversation, for the looked-for boy had arrived. As the maid announced:

"The boy, sir," the Diss Debar turned quickly to the Professor and exclaimed: "As I told you, Major will return to day." withdraw and interpose a demurrer to the sufficiency of the indictment.

Mr. Brooke asked that bail be fixed at reasonable amount, and suggested $1,000 as sufficient.

The Recorder disposed of this proposition with a suggestive "Humph!" and thought more favorably of Col. Fellows's suggestion that $10,000 is a proper sum. However, he decided to wait until to mor-

However, he decided to wait until to-morrow morning before announcing his decision.
This morning's session of the Commissioners of Accounts was productive of nothing for lack of witnesses.
Mr. Nicoll was very much inclined to move to punish another witness for contempt in refusing to obey the subpoena of the Commissioners. This witness is Hugh McDonald, bookkeeper of John H. Hanley & Co. A messenger boy arrived a few moments later with an average from Mr. McDonald and he messenger boy arrived a few moments later with an excuse from Mr. McDonald and he was forgiven.

Chief Clerk McAdam was next called, and the result was another passage at arms be-tween Mr. Nicoll and Lawyer Mitchell over the rules of evidence at the end of which it was announced that although Mr. McAdam is in better health than yesterday he is still

The wizzard thought differently. So did the reporter. Consequently, a moment later, the boy, the reporter and a young gentleman who promised to identify the dog started out together for Major's prison quarters.
The journey was not a long one. Prof.
Herrmann's home is at 334 West Forty-fifth street. The boy guided his companions to 323 West Forty-second street. A khock on the door brought forth a summons to enter.
The boy obeyed, and a woman's voice gave is in better health than yesterday he is still unable to appearand testify.

Mr. Nicoll then announced that he proposes to call Comptroller Myers at the next session.

Mr. Coudert protested that it is an unfair method of examination. That the Comptroller cannot be fully informed as to all matters of detail, with one of the parties who possess the information ill, another dead and a third in a lunatic asylum. He said that the the door brought forth a summons to enter. The boy obeyed, and a woman's voice gave him greeting with the words: "Haveye got the reward?" and then the other two pushed their way into the room.

In a few words the reporter explained the situation and demanded the dog. Major was produced from the depths of a foul-smelling cellar, and if ever there was a demonstration of canine joy. Major gave one.

The woman's name is Mrs. Hadrof. She demanded money for releasing Major, but when told that she was in danger of arrest for locking him up and keeping him long after she knew to whom he belonged she contented herself with a "good riddance" and a voley of abusive language. And Major, once in the open air, was nearly frenzied with joy.

He jumped, barked, ran, fawned on his liberators, put this perpetual-motion muscle examination must necessarily be incomplete until Mr. McAdam's evidence is in, and he refused to examine the Comptroller on his own behalf should Mr. Nicoll decide to call

It was finally decided to adjourn the in quiry until Thursday morning, when Mr. Myers will be summoned to appear and testify,

The expert employed by the Commission to examine Clerk of the Markets Woltman, with a view to ascertaining if his condition will warrant his being examined, has made a report to the effect that while Mr. Waltnan is not insane, he is in such a nervous state that a cross-examination on the subject would be exceedingly dangerous at present.

IT LOOKS BAD FOR COLLINS.

and told her that her husband would probably be exchanged in a short time. "Well," said the poor, broken-hearted widow, "I love John, and the children love him, and if he isn t so handsome as some men, I don't want to ex-change him, I don't, and I just won't have a rebel for a husband, so now!" SWORN CHARGES OF SELLING OUT BY THE LEADER OF THE FOURTH.

face close against his and gladsomely gurgled:

"Oh, the dear, dear doggie? I knew he'd come back. I said so, didn't I, Professor? Come! The time is at hand! I will materialize for you now!" And with this cry. confident of her powers. Ann O'Delia sprang to the top of the stairs and entered the Professor's study.

The latter signed the reporter to follow, and the scribe, bent upon seeing a new Reynolds, scrambled wildly up the stairs, but to disappointment, for the madame, with hands upraised, cried out: Johnny Collins must step down and out of the leadership of the Republican organization of the Fourth Assembly District. At least Counsellor Alex. S. Rosenthal and the Hebrew-American Republican League, of which he is head, have said so and they are doing a bit of lively work at present knocking the political underpinning out of the Rosenthal is in full accord with the Platt element and is not unacquainted with his neighbor across the way, John J. O'Brien, who cordially hates and hopes for the deposition of Collins.

One of the strongest and best-sustained charges against Collins is that of attempting to sell out the Republican candidate for Con-gressmen in the interest of Tim Campbell in gressmen in the interest of Tim Campbell in the last election.

Bernhard Wolff, a clothier, of 74 Essex street, makes the affidavit which proclaims Collins's guilt.

He swears that on Nov. 1, at 7,30 p. m., he was in an adjoining room to Rosenthal's parlor at 204 East Broadway, and overheard a conversation between Collins and Rosenthal, in which the former stated that he had agreed with Tim Campbell to turn over the votes of the Hebrew League to him in consideration of the payment of $2,500. This sum Collins proposed to divide equally between himself and Rosenthal.

After Rosenthal pretended to agree to this When the officers tried to serve a warrant of arrest on the coachman of Le Grand Cannon that worthy was reported to be out After Rosenthal protended to agree to this or town, and his employer processed in-norance of any reason why the manipulator of his horses should be wanted by the servants of the law. He was, though, and for the following reasons: Edward F. Crosby, a lawyer from Montana and a nephew of Rev. Howard Crosby, visited Grace Church last Sunday in company with arrangement Collins leit, and Rosenthal, ac-companied by Wolff, went to the Oriental Club, at Grand and Ridge streets, where they met Congressman Campbell.

To him Rosenthal related the conversation with Collins, and told Campbell not to pay Collins a cent as he could not deliver the goods.

With this evidence of Collins's treachery to his party the kickers against him and his rule expect to find it an easy matter to secure a reorganization of the district by the County Committee.

Breeklyn News in Brief.

John Noonan, of 345 Hicks street, was this morning held by Justice Massey to answer a clarge of stealing a steamship passage ticket from August Herman, of 159 king street, who intended to go to Europe on it.

The body of the man found in the Gowanus Canal was to-day identified as that of James Murtaugh, who has been missing from his home, 192 Neison street, since last January.

A Committee from the Eighteenth and Twenty-first wards waited upon Mayor Chapin this morning to urge the selection of property on Suydam street for one of the new parks. Air, Cannon told the officers that he had sent the coachman with some horses to his country seat in Vermont.

Of course, with the coachman in Vermont, the serving of the warrant will be deferred until his return. Possibly Mr. Crosby's sense of just wrath may have become appeased by that time, and he may not care to push the charge.

The Wonderful Carlsbad Springs.

The Workingmen's Independent League Urges the Children's Bill and Other At the Ninth International Medical Congress, Dr. I A. Toboldt, of the University of Pennsylvania, read paper stating that out of thirty cases treated with the gen uine imported Carlebad Sprudel Salt, Powder form, for At a meeting of the Workingmen's Indechronic constipation, hypochondria, disease of the liver and kidneys, jaundice, adiposis, diabetes, dropsy from valvular heart disease, dyspepsia, catarrhal inflammapendent League Sunday afternoon at Artzog's Hall, 305 Third avenue, resolutions were adopted congratulating The Evenue World on the bill it is pushing, giving parents improperly deprived of their children the right of appeal; also asking the State Legislature to defeat the two Ives bills for the selling or leasing of any or all of the lands now contained in the new public parks. It was asked that the parks be thrown open to the people immediately, without waiting for any improvements or formal opening, and it was urged that while the rich were gaining health and strength at Summer resorts the people should be allowed to enjoy their own property while it is still in a state of nature.

Jone R. Carp, Chairman Hall, 305 Third avenue, resolutions were valvular heart unsease, upper the stomach or spicen, of the stomach, ulcer of the stomach or spicen, of thildrenwith marasmus, gout, rheumatism of the ethildrenwith marasmus, gout, rheumatism of the joints, gravel, &c., twenty-six were entirely cured, three much improved, and one not treated long enough.

Awarage time of treatment, four weeks.
The Carlebad Sprudel Sait (powder form) is an excellent apertent Lauaries and Discrete. It clears the complexion, purifies the Blood. It is easily soluble: pleasant pleasion, purifies the Stood. It is easily soluble; pleasant to take and permanent in action. The genuine product of the Carlabad Springs is exported in round bottlee. Each bottle comes in a light blue paper cartoon, and has the signature, "Eisner & Mendelson Co.," sole agents, Barcley street, on every bottle. One bottle mailed for one dollar. Dr. Tobolds's lectures mailed free upon amilication.

FOR LOVERS OF LAUGHTER. SOMETHING INTERESTING.

WITTICISMS DROPPED FROM THE PENS OF

OUR FUNNY MEN.

A Perilons Errand.

Officer (2 a. m.)-Here, what are you doing it

Nupop—'Sh! I was only waiting for you. I'm going to rouse up this night drug clerk and l want protection.

His Preference.

[From Life.]
Barber (shaving Farmer Oatcake)—Bay rum, sah? Uncle Abner—Naw; but I'll try a little Med-ford, if you've got it.

Not Fully Recovered.

Johnson-Yes, and I had a great mind to speak to him. He owes me $50.

Jackson—I hear he has been sick. How was he looking?

looking 7
Johnson—Well, he was looking the other way when I met him.

Ought to Hear Then.

[From Pine.]
Bagley (at the telephone)—There's no use in alking, Balley. I can't hear the first word you

Bailey (at the other end)—Why don't you fold noth your ears around the instrument?

Cheap Postage.

[From the Chicago Herald.]

"Talk about cheap postal rates. I've seen

125 pounds go for a two-cent stamp, " remarked

her paper.
This morning, my dear, when you went to the corner drug store for a stamp.

Admitted Free.

[From the Chicago Herald.] .
At the art institute, Mr. Rounder—Are paint

Mr. Rounder (murmuring softly)-That's straight. I am a painter. I paint the town,

Not Tight Enough.

(From the Chicago Journal.)
Gawdge-What do you think of my new neck-

Gawdge-Why, if it fitted tighter it would hoke me, old chappie. Chawles-That's just what's the matter,

An Apecdote of the War.

[From the Detroit Free Frees.]
A soldier who had been taken prisoner had a rife and children living in New Jersey. A good minister, learning that there was soon to be general exchange of prisoners, and wishing to relieve the terrible anxiety of the wife, called

Where Land Is Cheap.

Market To the Control of the Control

Lone Horseman-Can you tell me how far it is

New Mexican Farmer—Can't stop now. Me an' Bill Ruckers is playin'a game of checkers, an'

o the Crawford ranch?

Doorkeeper-Are you a painter, sir ie, deah boy? Chawles—It does not fit tight enough.

Yes." All right, then: pass in."

'When was that ?" said Mrs. K., laying down

Johnson-I saw Mat this morning.

Jackson-Ah, ha!

Mr. Keeplent.

rs admitted free?

this doorway? You must move on!

A Matter Which Will Set You Thinking.

We are prodigal of our powers, vigor and energies We are product or our powers, we have no positives, work youth and early life. We use them up in business, work pleasure or distipation, and suddenly find ourselves old before our time, broken down in health, exhausted in before our time, broken down in health, exhausted in brain and nerve power, and left without physical eng-gies, nerve strength or ambition. Then, like the prodi-gal, we would like to return to our former condition of strength and health. Luckily for us there is a great and wonderful restorative which will gire back to the weakened and exhausted system the strength is has lost; a marvellous remedy which imparts strength and vigor to the brain and nerves, vitalizes and invigorates all the physical powers and restores us again to that grand degree of lusty strength, of bounding pulse and strong physical and nerve power which in ignorance er grand degree of lusty strength, or countries pure and strong physical and nerve power which in ignorance or folly we have exhausted.

This wonderful discovery is Dr. GREENE'S RESUURA

the great brain, nerve and strength restorer. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless, and can be precur-at any druggist's for $1.00 per bottle. It is an absolute at any druggist's for $1.00 per notice, Lies an ansolute specific for nervous and physical debility. Persons with weakened nerves and exhausted vitality can regain perfect and complete strength by its use. It restores lost energy and invigorates the weakened vital forces in eld and young. Dr. Greene, who prepares it, is the famous physician in the cure of nervous and chronic diseases, a 35 West 14th st., New York, and he can be committed n all cases free of charge, personally or by letter.

President Harrison is said to care but little for flowers. He finds that the perfume of roses makes him sneeze.

It is not expected that President Harrison will burn the midnight oil over his work. He usually breakfasts at 8 o'clock, and it is a rare thing for him to remain up later than 11 o'clock

Mrs. Wanamaker has four children, two son and two daughters. The eldest son is twenty-six years old. She lost a daughter, Hattie, some years ago, and built a church in her memory at a cost of $30,000. Mrs. Wanamaker her-self is about fifty years old.

Secretary Rush was at one time comme the Department of Wisconsin of the Grand Army of the Republic, and has always been a prominent figure at their national encamp-ments. His staff was always composed wholy of one-armed or one-legged veterans.

THE DUTY OF DEMOCRATS.

S. S. Cox Gives His Idea of It in a Letter to the Steckler Association.

At a meeting of the Steckler Association last night eighty-five more new members were enrolled in its ranks. It was reported thus S. S. Cox had volunteered to add a valuable collection of books to the library of the Clu for its new house, and the following letter from him was read an received great an from him was read an received great applause:

To President of the Steckter Association:

After the excitement of the St. Patrick's demonstrations, may I not be permitted in a sedam way to express my delight at the cool, calm, determined way in which the Democracy of the Tenth Assembly District challenges the enemy of Democratic thought and principle. It is a source of perpetual pleasure to me personally that in spite of our recent, our Federal disaster, the Tenth Assembly District is preparing for the future! I hall your splendid adventure into your new quarters. Your surrangements for the entertainment and honor of our Democratic folk is certified to be beyond praise. Your social advantages for the propagation and defense of Democratic opinion are beyond that of any other district; as your increase of Democratic strength last Fall was not only beyond expectation but a souvenir forever of the Gibraltar of Democracy in the Ninth Congressional District, in which the Steckler Association has the lead, I pray you, my dear friends, to accept the congratulations of a Democratic veteran, and, it rust, an honest Representative, for your new home in your new building. May it be the temple of Democratic honor long after your Representative passes away from the turmoils of our political life. With esteem.

S. B. Cox.

Among the Workers.

The Miscellaneous Section meets to-nighted 145 Eighth street. Less than 10 per cent. of the wage earners of New Jersey work less than sixty hours a week. The Central Labor Federation will send a delegate to the International Labor Congress a Pittsburg house painters are on strike against a grading of wages, which the union men say entails a reduction of pay. A strike of male finishers in the Waltham watch factory was averted yesterday by a conference with the Treasurer of the Company. The trouble arose out of the employment of twenty girls, whom the men believed were engaged to gradually work them out. The Fall River weavers showed no signs of cakening at last accounts.

Typographical Union No. 43, of Charleston. S. C., has issued a circular in the nature of a boycott against two newspapers of that city, because, as the circular alleges, the union printers were locked out of both offices without warning and their places filled with "rats."

She Is One Hundred and Four Years Old. Mrs. Rebecca Sidner, of Deckertown, N. J., one hundred and four years old. She is the old est person in Northern New Jersey, and remet bers seeing Washington and his body guard when they passed through the Pequest Valley of route to Morristown. She is yet quite active.

THE OLD FOLKS WON'T GO TO BED LITTLE ONES WON'T GO TO SCHOOL

Until After They Have Read This Wonderful Tale.

JULES VERNE AND RIDER HAGGARD ECLIPSED ! ROBINSON CRUSOE OUTDONE.

FORTY MILLION MILES AWAY; Or, A Voyage to Mars.

MARVELLOUS ACCOUNT OF THE PEOPLE AND CIVILIZATION OF ANOTHER PLANET.

SYNOPSIS OF OPENING CHAPTERS. The story of the trip to Mars is told in a curious cipher manuscript which is found under very strange circulatures on an island in the Pacific. The journey is undertaken in the "astronaut." a peculiarly constructed machine resembling as thin. The motive power is a newly discovered force called apergy. The voyage threely exact to the planet is successfully made and the intropilit traveller lands sately on Mars. The natives at first as astonished, then assall him with deadly draggnes and other means of warfare. He is rescued by the authority astonished, then assall him with deadly draggnes and other means of warfare. He is rescued by the authority of Martial personage of rank, who leads him to his home, where the hardy voyage from the Earth is presented in his family. Although treated with kindness he is practically held a prisoner. Meanwhile he studies the interest of Mars. His host enlightens him as to why the Martian mode assaulted him, and then gave a resume of Marshitstory and customs. The Zampts or Regent, as envoy from the Ruier of Mars, visits the traveled fuseful his his boat the accompanies him to the spot where he had left the astronaut to inspect Eveens, the daughter of his host Leme, also goes with him. While the Regent is snamining the remarkable rescue her, compelling the Regent to lend unwilling assistance.

For a thrilling account of the rescue and dangerous position in which it leaves the voyager from the Earth

See Wednesday's MORNING WORLD.